Dear Mr. Seigel:

I am very pleased with our short, but very favorable professional relationship.

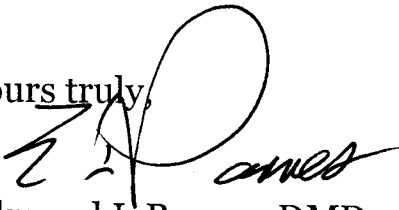

As you know, we found your name in the yellow pages. It is surprising, these days, to be able to find such a competent, intelligent and effective business operation.

Not only did you answer all our questions in an understandable manner, you were here promptly when called and returned for the installation as promised.

In addition to the extreme competence that you demonstrated, you surprised us further by reducing the fee you had originally quoted us because you did not need to use a certain piece of equipment. I never would have known what you used and very much appreciate your honesty.

If I can ever be used as a reference for a future customer for you, please do not hesitate to have your client call me.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'E. Parnes', written over the words 'Yours truly,'.
